GUANO. Gardeners on a small scale as well as extensive farmers, (says the Norfolk Argus.) would find the use of this powerful tertilizing agent of very great value, especially with regard to annual plants, where there can be no reaction. For these, guano is believed to be the best of all manures. Its extreme concentration and consequent portability, also make it a cheap fertilizer. Persons should be careful about the quantity used on rose bushes. A skillful gar-dener, not very distant, tried some of it on very valuable bushes, which consequently grew enormously, and were covered with flowers in astonishing profusion. A sccond dose finished the business; the growth which would have required years to accomplish, had already been forced into one season. Even some to which the guano was not applied the second time soon turned yellow and dwindled away. A teaspoon full, mixed with fine earth, is enough for one bush, and will make a tomato vine flourish and bear most wonderfully.

"THE SOUTHERN MATRON."

"Belle Britain" in a letter to the New Orleans Picayune, dated at Richmond, refers to Miss Cunningham, "the Southern Matron" and the lady who conceived the idea of pur-400 chasing Mount Vernon. "She is," remarks 300 this correspondent, "a native of Charleston, 4 Prizes of 50 ap'g to 1,500 are 200 and an invalid from infancy. Never having 100,000 been married, the title of 'Matron' is, of course a misnomer; unless, by a figure of speech, we may call her the 'Virgin Mother" of the great cause to which she is dedicating her feeble, yet most effective existence. * I found Miss Cunningham confined to her bed; and marveled to see such strength com-ing out of weakness. It is the power of thought, or will, or rather of love, that creates and controls the world. There, pale and physically feeble, this chief apostle of Mount Vergonism has a patriotic fire in her eye that never fails to kindle a most contagious enthusiasm."
